Mrs Klein

by Nicholas Wright

12 - 19 May 2007

Set in 1934, this is a powerful drama about the controversial child psychologist Melanie Klein, whose ruthlessly 'objective' case studies of her children made her reputation and won her power among Sigmund Freud's followers.

After the death of her son Hans in mysterious circumstances, Melanie is confronted with the irony of being a successful child analyst but a failed mother.

And when her daughter Melitta leaves her, to be replaced by Melanie's ambitious young pupil Paula, a bitter power struggle between analyst and patient ensues...

Directed by Tony Donnelly

Starring Pam Sage, Charlotte Bacon and Gill Grubb
