Spider's Web

by Agatha Christie

31 January - 7 February 2009

Suppose you were to enter your living room and find the dead body of your worst enemy lying on the floor?

Suppose that the prime suspect in the killing was a twelve-year-old girl, who had been mentally tortured by this person?

Suppose too that you were expecting the imminent arrival of an important guest, whose presence could have far reaching implications for the world?

What would you do...?

This is the dilemma faced by Clarissa Hailsham-Brown, second wife of a Foreign Office civil servant. With the discovery of the body and with the clock ticking, she must dispose of the corpse, console a terrified child, arrange a cover story, discover the identity of the murderer, and make a plate of ham sandwiches and coffee for her husband's distinguished guest!

Directed by Wendy Marsh. Featuring Ellie Martin, Andrew Kelly, Richard Banks, Ella Banks, Mark Campbell, Paul Friett, Tony Gurney, David Hampton, Desni Hanford, John Hyde, Kirstie Logan and Horry Stapleton.
